SCHEDULE "N"- INTEREST ON OVERDUE ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

(B/L 2810-2018)

1. Where a municipal fee is owed to the City pursuant to a City bylaw, the person who owes the fee must pay interest on the fee, calculated from the day the fee becomes overdue.

2. For the purposes of Section 1, the fee becomes overdue when the City issues an invoice or a written request for payment to the person who owes the fee, and the fee remains outstanding for more than 30 days.

3. This Schedule does not operate to require the payment of an amount of interest less than $10.

4. Interest under Sections 1-3 stops accruing on the earlier of the date:

   (a) payment of the fee is received by the City, and

   (b) unpaid amounts, to which Section 258 of the Community Charter applies, are transferred to property taxes.

5. The annual rate of interest payable under Sections 1-3 is 12%.

6. On a fee owed to the City, interest will be non-compounded and calculated on the number of days since the fee became overdue.

7. Payment of a fee received by the City pursuant to a City bylaw will be applied first to interest, calculated in accordance with Section 6, and then to the principal balance owing.

8. This Schedule does not apply to money owed to the City:

   (a) in the capacity of an agent or trustee;

   (b) by a municipality or regional district;

   (c) by the government of British Columbia or Canada;

   (d) by an employee of the City in respect of overpayment salary, wages, benefits or expenses;

   (e) under a contract where the contract specifically provides for payment of interest to the City; or

   (f) where another bylaw or enactment specifically provides for payment of interest to the City.
